

Bottesford Junior School – Sports Premium Spend 2024–2025

This document outlines how Bottesford Junior School has spent its Sports Premium allocation for the academic year 2024–2025, and the impact it has had on our pupils.

Category	What We Spent On	Amount (£)	Impact for Children
Extra-curricular clubs (in school)	After-school and lunchtime sports clubs run by staff	9,566.59	More children able to join clubs, including free access for disadvantaged pupils.
Sports competitions (in school)	Inter-house and internal school tournaments	600	Pupils enjoy competitive opportunities and build teamwork skills.
Equipment & resources	New PE equipment and resources	5,083.74	Wider range of sports activities available, raising enjoyment and skill levels.
Online platforms/resources	Digital subscriptions for PE & sport	450.30	Access to planning resources and activities for pupils and staff.
External competitions & events	School Games Organiser network (competitions and festivals)	2,730	More pupils represented school in competitions, raising confidence and pride.
External coaches	Specialist coaching sessions	270	Pupils accessed expertise in new sports, improving participation.
Swimming top-up lessons	None this year	0	-
Active travel initiatives	None this year	0	-
Membership fees	None this year	0	-
Staff training (CPD)	None this year	0	-

Total Allocation: £18,640

Total Spent: £18,700.63

Key Outcomes for Pupils

- More opportunities for girls, disadvantaged pupils, and children with SEND to take part.
- Positive impact on PE teaching, pupil engagement, and school sport participation.
- 83% of Year 6 pupils could swim 25m; 89% could use different strokes and perform self-rescue.
- Wider range of sports equipment for pupils to enjoy.